

EVEN Cowboys LIKE A Little Bit of Rock AND Roll

Words + Music by CHRIS LEDOUX

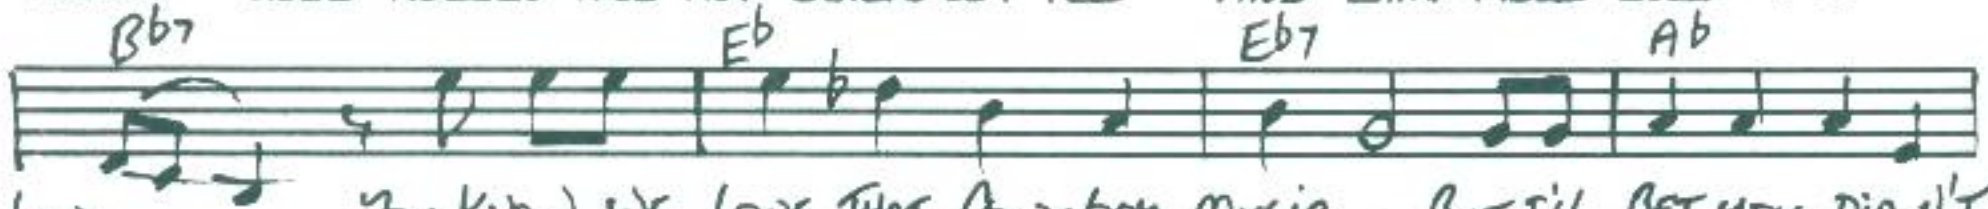

Rubato

WELL Cow-BOYS LIKE THE LAD-IES THEY LIKE BEANS AND So-WE

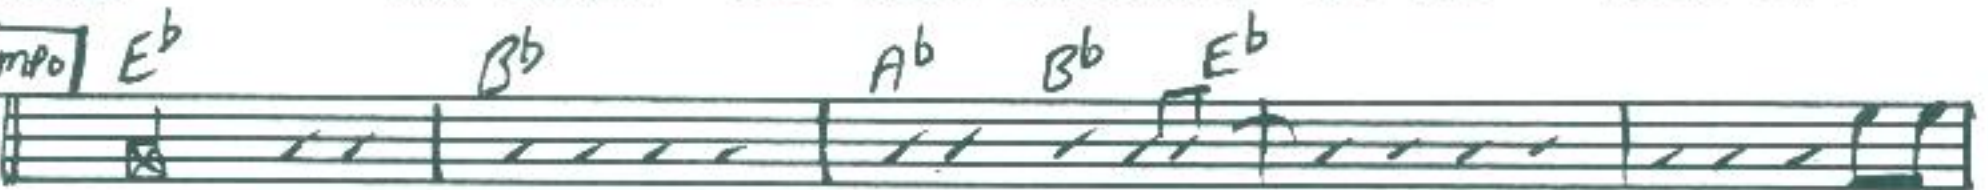

DOUGH GOOD HORSES AND HOT BLACK COF-FEE AND CAMP-FIRES BURN-ING

You KNOW WE LOVE THAT Cow-BOY MUSIC - BUT I'LL BET YOU DID-N'T

KNOW THAT EU-EN Cow-BOYS LIKE JUST A LIT-TLE ROCK AND

EU-EN

Cow-BOYS LIKE A LIT-TLE BIT of Rock AND Roll WE

ALL GOT SOME Boogie Woo-GIE - IN our Soul THERE'S A

LIT-TLE BIT of BOO-OGY HOL-LY IN EU-ERY Cow-BOY THAT I KNOW AND EU-EN

Cow-boys Like a Little Bit of Rock and Roll — When you
 Verse: Camped out on the prairie and the moon is shin-in' brite and you can Hear those cat-tle bawl-in' soft and low — Well there's No-thing like a cow-boy songs to make it all seem just rite, but even Cow-boys Like a Little Bit of Rock — and Roll — ...

Verse 3: Now them old buckeroos are set in their ways — and they'll even tell you so — say they don't like nuthin' but them old time cowboy songs.
 But I've seen the green grass growin'
 underneath the winter snow, and shoot,
 I'll bet them old cowboys even like a little Rock + Roll.
