VERSE 2 Now lay off the hard liquor and leave them pills alone you'll only dull the senses and leave you weak and stoned — If you want to be a winner son you've got to play it straight Give it everything you've got when they open up the gate

VERSE 3 Now if you've got a woman son, you'd better know her well
 Cause it takes a special lady to follow you thru hell But if she'll stand beside you when you're down to your last dime, you've got your self a treasure that few men ever find.
